TRAILBLAZERS TO FREEDOM Traveling Trunks

The African American Museum in Philadelphia (AAMP) Trailblazers to Freedom Traveling Trunks extend the museum visit into school classrooms, libraries, community centers and conference rooms with:

- A touchscreen display featuring video drawn directly from AAMP's core exhibit, Audacious Freedom: African Americans in Philadelphia 1776-1876
- Replica artifacts and documents—including clothing, letters, speeches, paintings, broadsides, and more—illustrating the personal, professional and political lives of Philadelphia's early African American community
- An Educator Guide and Object List with sample lesson plans and historical information to provide a context for learning
- A Technical Reference Guide, to ensure an easy user experience
